

STATEMENTS BY DAVID F. SOBEY, CHAIRMAN EMERITUS,
SOBEYS INC. AND BILL MCEWAN, PRESIDENT & CEO, SOBEYS
INC. ON THE PASSING OF WALLACE MCCAIN

David F. Sobey

Wallace McCain was a trailblazer in all that he did. As a businessman he helped build a true Canadian and global success story. As a proud Atlantic Canadian he advocated endlessly for the growth and development of the region that he always thought of as home. And as a philanthropist he worked tirelessly to help those less fortunate than himself.

I am deeply saddened by the passing of a dear friend. My thoughts are with Margie and the entire McCain family. I've had the pleasure of their friendship for more than 50 years.

Bill M<sup>c</sup>Ewan

Our industry and our country lost a true giant with the passing of Wallace McCain.

Praise for business leaders should always be used sparingly, but when speaking of Wallace McCain praise is always most appropriate.

Wallace was a true gentleman, an entrepreneur, a nation builder, a humanitarian, a mentor and, quite simply, a business legend. He was friendly to all and a friend to many, including me. It is fair to say that his impact on our country will be felt for generations to come.

I will truly miss his wisdom and his friendship.
